From the Pastor's Desk / Del Escritorio del Padre

Celebration of the Feast of Pentecost reminds us two basic realities : an awareness of the reality that we are filled with the power of the Spirit of the Lord and we will not shy or reluctant to be active disciples from now on, and we feel a clarity and certainty that impels us to become actively involved in the building up of the Kingdom of God in this age. This is the task entrusted to His followers by Jesus before He ascended to the Father- wait until you receive the gift from above, go and proclaim and bear witness to all the earth . He promised His presence with us so that we will be successful disciples everywhere through maintaining our communion with Him .

Daily and monthly devotions are expressions of our faithful discipleship journey. Month of May we celebrated our devotions to Mary Mother of God and disciple par excellence. In June our special devotions are towards the Sacred Heart of Jesus. There lots of devotional practices for individuals and families. Rosary of the sacred Heart of Jesus , litany to the Heart of Jesus, daily consecration of the family to the Heart of Jesus etc are few such practices unique to our Catholic Tradition. When we do this together we give our children a taste of the beauty of true catholic identity.

Most important of these, our frequent participation in the Holy Mass where we relive our Communion with Jesus , a genuine sign of our commitment and being on the right track as disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us celebrate our June devotions and feel closer to Jesus God bless you all

La celebración de la Fiesta de Pentecostés nos recuerda dos realidades básicas: una conciencia de la realidad de que estamos llenos del poder del Espíritu del Señor y que no seremos tímidos ni reacios a ser discípulos activos de ahora en adelante, y sentiremos una claridad y certeza que nos impulsa a implicarnos activamente en la edificación del Reino de Dios en este tiempo. Esta es la tarea encomendada a sus seguidores por Jesús antes de ascender al Padre: esperad a recibir el don de lo alto, id y proclamad y dad testimonio a toda la tierra. Él prometió Su presencia con nosotros para que seamos discípulos exitosos en todas partes al mantener nuestra comunión con Él.

Los devocionales diarios y mensuales son expresiones de nuestro camino de discipulado fiel. Mes de mayo celebramos nuestras devociones a María Madre de Dios y discípula por excelencia. En junio nuestras devociones especiales son hacia el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Hay muchas prácticas devocionales para individuos y familias. El Rosario del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, la letanía al Corazón de Jesús, la consagración diaria de la familia al Corazón de Jesús, etc., son algunas de estas prácticas exclusivas de nuestra Tradición Católica. Cuando hacemos esto juntos, les damos a nuestros hijos una muestra de la belleza de la verdadera identidad católica.

El más importante de ellos, nuestra participación frecuente en la Santa Misa donde revivimos nuestra Comunión con Jesús, un signo genuino de nuestro compromiso y de estar en el camino correcto como discípulos de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Celebremos nuestras devociones de junio y sintamos más cerca de Jesús Dios los bendiga a todos

I'm not very good at telling jokes. I like them, but after I hear one and laugh at it, I let it go and forget it. I suspect this doesn't just apply to jokes. The Gospel today hints that the disciples may have had the same weakness when Jesus says the Spirit will "teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (John 14:26).

Jesus spent three years teaching his disciples and showing them how much God loves them and how to love their neighbor. He used parables as examples and miracles as signs of the Father's love. He answered their questions and explained things privately. Knowing that this would still not be enough, he promised to send the Spirit after he had risen. You have to experience some things to understand them. And that is what the disciples would do.

When they received the Spirit after Jesus' resurrection, they also began to do the things Jesus talked about. They fed the poor and healed the sick. Thus they began to experience Jesus in those around them. They would remember what Jesus had taught them and apply it in their lives.

They even accepted suffering for their faith.

We too can receive that promise from Jesus to have the Spirit teach and remind us. As we share our faith with others, we begin to experience Jesus in them. As we listen to the Lord in prayer, we are reminded of passages in the Bible and we begin to understand how they apply in our lives.

May the Holy Spirit teach and remind us of the signs of God's love. Tom Schmidt, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

ORACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Domingo de Pentecostés

Misa del día

Dios nuestro, que por el misterio de la festividad que hoy celebramos santificas a tu Iglesia, extendida por todas las naciones, concede al mundo entero los dones del Espíritu Santo y continúa obrando en el corazón de tus fieles las maravillas que te dignaste Realizar en los comienzos de la predicación evangélica. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.

Reflexión:

¿Con qué dones del Espíritu Santo me siento bendecido de manera especial?

EL PODER ACTIVO DEL ESPÍRITU

El misterio de la Trinidad se refiere a un Dios en tres personas. Con frecuencia reconocemos a Jesús como “la segunda persona de la Trinidad”, pero también referirse al Espíritu como una “persona” parece menos natural. En el arte religioso cristiano, el Espíritu Santo a menudo se le representa como una paloma, o como en la lectura de hoy de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, como lenguas de fuego. Son menos frecuentes las imágenes del Espíritu como una “persona” reconocible en forma humana. Las lecturas de hoy no resuelven el tema de cómo representar al Espíritu, pero ciertamente dan forma al poder activo del Espíritu en el mundo y en cada corazón humano. En los Hechos de los Apóstoles, el Espíritu hace posible que las personas hablen y entiendan diversas lenguas. La carta de Pablo a los corintios alaba al Espíritu por todo tipo de dones espirituales, servicios y “obras”. Por último, en el Evangelio de Juan, Jesús llama al Espíritu nuestro abogado y nuestro maestro divino. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Pentecost Sunday

At the Mass during the Day

O God, who by the mystery of today’s great feast sanctify your whole Church in every people and nation, pour out, we pray, the gifts of the Holy Spirit across the face of the earth and, with the divine grace that was at work when the Gospel was first proclaimed, fill now once more the hearts of believers.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection:

With which gifts of the Holy Spirit do I feel particularly blessed?

THE SPIRIT’S ACTIVE POWER

The mystery of the Trinity refers to one God in three persons. We frequently acknowledge Jesus as “the second person of the Trinity,” but referring also to the Spirit as a “person” comes less naturally. In religious art, the Holy Spirit often appears as a dove or, as in today’s reading from the Acts of the Apostles, tongues of fire. Much rarer are images of the Spirit as a “person” in recognizable human form. Today’s readings do not settle the issue of how to picture the Spirit, but they certainly give shape to the Spirit’s active power in the world and in each human heart. In Acts, the Spirit enables people to speak and understand a variety of languages. Paul’s letter to the Corinthians praises the Spirit for all kinds of spiritual gifts, services, and “workings.” Finally, in John’s Gospel, Jesus calls the Spirit our Advocate and our divine teacher.
