From the Pastor's Desk / Del Escritorio del Padre

It is very enlightening to see how John the Baptist was preparing the way of the Lord, helping the people of his time to welcome the promised Messiah.

John the Baptist was providing the baptism of repentance to those who confessed their sins. He challenged the people saying, "Reform your lives. The reign of God is at hand" (Mt.31-12).

Two facts are evident. The reign of God is imminent. They have to reform their lives to have any participation in it.

This implies that their current way of life will not qualify them to get involved in the forthcoming Kingdom of God. It generates an awareness of their sinfulness with a pressing desire to reform their lives. Here we see their faith journey is moving on to a very personal level. Knowing the shallowness of their commitment and the unreliable nature of the people around him, he required of them to "show evidence" that they really meant to change. They had to do this to welcome the Messiah into their lives and participate in the new Kingdom that He will usher in.

This is the process of our salvation - an awareness, a readiness to change, courageous testimony to the honesty of our commitment. All these imply an informed desire and a deep seated personal search to encounter the Messiah, our Savior.

John continues that the Messiah will baptize us with the Holy Spirit and His fire. We will know that there is a selection and a rejection, an acceptance and utter destruction. The gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit will be our strength. His fire will burn all the rubbish in us. The resultant newness of life will help us to be active and alive in the Kingdom where Jesus is the King. In

His Kingdom the will of God becomes the major concern of our daily life. The prayer, "Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done" becomes very personal and that loyalty is the determining factor in the choices and decisions of our daily lives. We will always pray to know and do the Will of God.

While preparing to celebrate His coming, we must review our lives to be sure that this process of reform is happening in us. We must help our children to prepare their hearts for Jesus.

God bless you all

Es muy esclarecedor ver cómo Juan Bautista iba preparando el camino del Señor, ayudando a la gente de su tiempo a acoger al Mesías prometido.

Juan el Bautista estaba proporcionando el bautismo de arrepentimiento a aquellos que confesaron sus pecados. Desafió a la gente diciendo: "Reformen sus vidas. El reino de Dios está cerca" (Mt.31-12).

Dos hechos son evidentes. El reino de Dios es inminente. Tienen que reformar sus vidas para tener alguna participación en ella.

Esto implica que su estilo de vida actual no los calificará para involucrarse en el venidero Reino de Dios. Genera una conciencia de su pecaminosidad con un deseo apremiante de reformar sus vidas. Aquí vemos que su camino de fe avanza a un nivel muy personal. Conociendo la superficialidad de su compromiso y la naturaleza poco confiable de las personas que lo rodeaban, les exigió que "mostraran evidencia" de que realmente tenían la intención de cambiar. Tuvieron que hacer esto para recibir al Mesías en sus vidas y participar en el nuevo Reino que Él traerá.

Este es el proceso de nuestra salvación: una conciencia, una disposición al cambio, un testimonio valiente de la honestidad de nuestro compromiso. Todo esto implica un deseo informado y una profunda búsqueda personal para encontrar al Mesías, nuestro Salvador.

Juan continúa que el Mesías nos bautizará con el Espíritu Santo y Su fuego. Sabremos que hay una selección y un rechazo, una aceptación y una destrucción total. Los dones y frutos del Espíritu Santo serán nuestra fortaleza. Su fuego quemará toda la basura en nosotros. La novedad de vida resultante nos ayudará a estar activos y vivos en el Reino donde Jesús es el Rey.

En Su Reino, la voluntad de Dios se convierte en la mayor preocupación de nuestra vida diaria. La oración "Venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad" se vuelve muy personal y esa lealtad es el factor determinante en las opciones y decisiones de nuestra vida diaria. Oraremos siempre para conocer y hacer la Voluntad de Dios.

Mientras nos preparamos para celebrar Su venida, debemos revisar nuestras vidas para asegurarnos de que este proceso de reforma se está produciendo en nosotros. Debemos ayudar a nuestros hijos a preparar sus corazones para Jesús.

Dios los bendiga a todos

Old Testament prophets were not very popular. Most were killed or exiled because they challenged people to follow God's commands. John the Baptist suffered the same way. So what kept the prophets going?

First of all, the prophets had faith in God. They believed that God spoke through them, that God would protect them and support them. Second, they had patience. They kept going when people rejected their preaching. Some prophets had to be patient with their own weaknesses.

The third gift of the prophets was hope, hope that by keeping God's commands, God's people would be renewed, along with all of creation. Our first reading is an example of such hope, with its descriptions of deserts becoming gardens and the sick and disabled being healed and strengthened.

So what do we learn from those prophets? First, we need to keep our faith in God strong. If you go to church once a week, the bare minimum, it would be like exercising only once a week and thinking that will keep you in shape. Second, we need patience, and not just with our kids. We need to be patient with ourselves and with God. Some people stop going to church because they don't see any spiritual growth in themselves. So be patient; don't expect to become a saint right away. Finally, the reading from Isaiah gives us hope that God will open our eyes of faith, clear our ears to hear God's word (Isaiah 35:5), and "meet him with joy and gladness" (Isaiah 35:10).

OUR FASCINATING FAITH*Our Lady of Guadalupe (December 12)

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas, first appeared to Cuauhtlatzin (Juan Diego) on December 9, 1531 while he was on his way to a Eucharistic celebration in Tlatelolco, Mexico. The Virgin addressed him by his indigenous name, asking him to go to the palace of Archbishop Zumárraga to request that a shrine be erected there at the site of the apparition, in Tepeyac, so as to share her love and compassion for all believers. Juan Diego did so, but the archbishop did not believe him, demanding proof of his story and of the Lady's identity. He returned to Our Lady daily, and on December 12, he conveyed to her the archbishop's request for proof. She showed him Castilian roses blooming there through the stony ground despite the winter's cold. He picked the flowers and carried them in his tilma (mantle) to the archbishop. When he unfolded his tilma to present the roses, Mary's image was imprinted on the mantle! Her blue sash and the flower over her womb were traditional Aztec symbols of pregnancy and new life. But her features were those of a mestiza, indicating mixed Aztec-European heritage. Thus Our Lady of Guadalupe remains the enduring icon of unity-in-diversity, the fruit of our one baptism into Jesus, her Son.

NUESTRA FASCINANTE FE*Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe (12 de diciembre)

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, Patrona de las Américas, se apareció por primera vez a Cuauhtlatoatzin (Juan Diego) el 9 de diciembre de 1531 aunque se dirigía a una celebración eucarística en Tlatelolco, México. La Virgen se dirigió a él por su nombre indígena, pidiéndole que fuera al palacio del arzobispo Zumárraga para solicitar que se erigiera allí un santuario en el lugar de la aparición, en el Tepeyac, para compartir su amor y compasión con todos los creyentes. Juan Diego lo hizo, pero el arzobispo no le creyó, exigiendo pruebas de su historia y de la identidad de la Señora. Volvió a la Virgen a diario, y el 12 de diciembre le transmitió la petición de pruebas del arzobispo. Ella le mostró rosas castellanas que florecían allí a través del suelo pedregoso a pesar del frío del invierno. Él recogió las flores y las llevó en su tilma (manto) hasta el arzobispo. Cuando desplegó su tilma para presentar las rosas, ¡la imagen de María quedó impresa en el manto! Su faja azul y la flor sobre su vientre eran símbolos aztecas tradicionales de embarazo y nueva vida. Pero sus rasgos eran los de una mestiza, indicando una herencia mixta azteca-europea. Así, Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe sigue siendo el icono perdurable de la unidad en la diversidad, el fruto de nuestro único bautismo en Jesús, su Hijo.
